Sitgestiu 2021

MUSIC | CULTURE | EXPERIENCES

After the storm, good weather arrives. It looks like Covid-19 is starting to recede, having made us live like hermits for so many months, and it's time to reclaim the streets for the culture and the museums for the people.

We still can't lower our guard entirely, though, and we will maintain all necessary measures for the safety of the people who visit us and make the most of us. Still, this Sitgestiu 2021 is to be very different for sure.

It will be different from 2020 and even compared to previous years. We have learned to give a digital dimension and audience to the events we organize. We want to be more open and inclusive than ever, seeking the involvement of every possible audience.

We consider that every Art expression shows how we perceive the museums, including that which cannot hang on the walls: the musical, literary and scenic arts, which are part of our creed and the very essence of the Cau Ferrat. We claim that art is not just for the faint-hearted. Moreover, you have to open your senses to enjoy it.

We are confident that the public's response will be good. Each one can take advantage, as every year, of an offer of quality that complements the rest of Sitges' cultural offer.

We trust that you'll be drawn to our program and that you'll enjoy this way of approaching a heritage that belongs to us all.

MEMÒRIA, BY CESK FREIXAS

Cesk Freixas, vocals and guitar
Víctor Nin, guitar

12 €

Born in Sant Pere de Riudebitlles in 1984, Cesk Freixas is a poet, singer and songwriter. His father was a carpenter, a family tradition that ran for six generations, and it's the bond he's established with the artisanal work of music. As a result, he often likes to introduce himself as a song carpenter. A geographer by training, he has published eight records, three poetry books and two children's stories. In 2021 he's published Memòria, the most representative album of his musical career. He evokes all the poetic maturity and the essence of a warmer and closer sound, positioning him as one of the leading artists in his style in our country. He now celebrates 17 years on stage, and he does so with the careful and detailed arrangements of Víctor Nin, the grand guitarist that has been with him since his beginnings.

GRALLES CONCERT, WITH CANYA D'OR AND GAITEROS DE ELCIEGO

CANYA D'OR

Jaume Aguza, gralla

Pol Figuerola, gralla

Oriol Nicolau, low gralla

Òscar “Titus” Prats, timpani

Canya d'or is a gralla formation set up in the autumn of 1997 in Reus. The gralla is a musical instrument like a shawm, used mainly in popular Catalan music.

From the traditional formation of three grallas and a drum, the street is its natural stage, moving amid folk parades, concerts and popular balls.

Their original and varied repertoire and broad experience have established them as a reference group in gralla music. In addition, their interest and desire to renew the gralla folk scene has boosted the growth of this group by enriching itself with other musicians and in different formats. All this has made it possible to offer a broad range of music in their shows.

This year they are preparing what will be their second record to celebrate their 25th anniversary.

GAITEROS DE ELCIEGO

Juan Carlos Gómez Palacios, bagpipes 1

Juantxu Gómez Palacios, bagpipes 2

Jon Elozegi, drum / percussion

This concert is a fast-paced journey through the world of the Navarra Bagpipes.

The concert shows different styles and technical possibilities of the Navarra Bagpipe, from arrangements by classical authors such as Julián Romà and Nicolás García to their tunes by Elciego Bagpipes and musical performances from various latitudes.

FLAMENCO SHOW BY NEO

Isabelle Laudenbach

Cristina López

Carmela Muñoz

Three. Three bodies. Three women. Sing, play and dance. A session.

Neo is born out of desire, the desire to share Flamenco among female artists, with no other pretence than to come together, exploring new places and being carried away into the depths of Flamenco.

This show is a crossroads to one destination: A binding from and through Flamenco.

We sing, touch and dance, as we feel it.

A place without hierarchies, in which the Flamenco of three women pierces the scene and discovers a new space for communication and interpretation of jondo art.

From traditional to contemporary, from the past to the weird present surrounding us, from the individual to the collective.

Neo has its original inspiration in the dawn of Flamenco and takes us on a walk through its art.

Christian Torres González, violin
Miguel Ángel Castillo Ortiz, violin
Josep Bracero Garzón, viola
Irma Bau Rubinat, cello

On the 60th anniversary of the death of Vitorian composer Jesús Guridi, we offer his String Quartet No.2 in A minor. A romantic work full of life and well known, followed by a second part with the String Quartet No. 14 in D minor Death and the Maiden by F. Schubert, one of the most profound and most successful works of literature for string quartet. All through the concert, we will travel with the J. Guridi quartet in A minor, dramatic but vital, to finally solve in D minor with the F. Schubert quartet, where death leads the tempo, with all its facets and rule of life.

RONDA DE NIT

Under the Sitges starry night, we'll see how they coexist with the historic centre and contemporary art.

Carrer d'en Bosc, a street from the old district, is a small jewel, the local people's treasure. In it, we'll see some of the buildings that still preserve all the dignity that only time and history can give. Besides, it houses one of the most important international contemporary art collections in Catalonia, the Stämpfli Foundation, created by the Swiss artist Peter Stampfli and his wife, Anna Maria.

The visitor will discover how this street has evolved and experience the contrast between the outer personality and the inner modernity. Finally, we'll climb to the terraces of the building to end the tour, where we can see the night sky in a 360° vision.

NIT D'ESTELS I MAR AL MARICEL

Sitges is a village facing the sea, just like its museums. Escorted by the museum director, you will tour various depictions of the sea, the ships and the marine life that we find at the permanent exhibition of the Maricel Museum, and we'll dig out a collection of stories and legends. Further, we'll see and touch some objects that are usually out of reach, part of the marine collection from Emerencià Roig. The use of these items was to position the ships from the stars, the only way to know one's position until the invention of the GPS, used by the local people who came back from Cuba in the 19th century.

To round the visit, the Garraf Astronomy Observatory will show us the sky with a telescope. First, we will look for all the stars we can see with the naked eye. Then, with the telescope, we will identify the subtle rings of Saturn, and we will lose ourselves among the depths of our starry environment. Plus, we may be able to see the Perseids asteroid shower.

ELS HUMORS DE MARYCEL OR THE HUMAN EMOTIONS IN THE HISTORY OF MARICEL'S ENSEMBLE

We will experience the relationship between Sitges and Maricel's ensemble through its humors, which humans live and crave. Melancholy, apathy, anger and enthusiasm. A fresh proposal to experience those crucial moments of history and tradition as a heritage and museum complex, where you can feel part of what has meant this unique space in Sitges. And throughout it, the Malmsey wine will heal or maybe boost these emotional states.

APREN A TOCAR LA MÚSICA DE FESTA MAJOR FAMILY WORKSHOP

With the collaboration of Escola de Grallers de Sitges.

FOLK MUSIC WORKSHOP (DRUM)

An inseparable companion to the gralla (wind instrument) at local festivities is the small drum accompanying it to the rhythm of popular songs from each town in Catalonia. In this workshop, you will learn how to pick up drumsticks correctly and play to the rhythm of songs that fill the town during the local Festes.

Will we be able to make a good drum roll?

FOLK MUSIC WORKSHOP (FLAVIOL DE GRALLA)

You may have never heard of the flabiol de gralla. A flabiol is a wind instrument with which we can make simple melodies similar to the sounds of Festa Major but not as loud and without the added difficulty of the double cane of a gralla.

In this workshop, we will learn to place our hands on the instrument, make it sound well, and even play some popular tunes.
